Estate: The Hähn family has winemaking tradition as far back as 1648, the winery has been in Kobern since 1892. Oenologist Konrad Hähn now continues this tradition and has achieved 2 national awards for excellence, is recommended every year by Feinschmecker Magazine and was among the Top 100 estates in 2004. He grows mainly Riesling and a small percentage of Pinot Noir. The terroir is slate soil and all vines are planted on steep terraced slopes only.

Tasting note: A delicate, yet fruit-driven white, sporting peach and apple notes backed by lively acidity. A good aperitif. Drink now through 2010.
1,000 cases made. — Bruce Sanderson

Food affinity: A great alternative to Pinot Gris or Sauvignon Blanc. A very versatile food wine, try with your favorite savory dishes.
