Estate: The Hähn family has winemaking tradition as far back as 1648, the winery has been in Kobern since 1892. Oenologist Konrad Hähn now continues this tradition and has achieved 2 national awards for excellence, is recommended every year by Feinschmecker Magazine and was among the Top 100 estates in 2004. He grows mainly Riesling and a small percentage of Pinot Noir. The terroir is slate soil and all vines are planted on steep terraced slopes only.

Tasting note: Rare and intense , yet with an elegant richness of concentrated peach and honey. This single berry selection of ultra-ripe and botrytised grapes was harvested at 155 Oechsle / 35 Brix.
18.2% residual sugar.
150 half bottles made.

Food affinity: Great to enjoy on its own, but also possible to be shared with other people.
